

I wandered lonely as a cloud, that floats on high o'er vales and hills,
When all at once I saw a crowd, a host of golden daffodils;
Beside the lake, beneath the trees, fluttering and dancing in the breeze.
..... For oft, when on my couch I lie, in vacant or in pensive mood,
They flash upon that inward eye, which is the bliss of solitude;
And then my heart with pleasure fills, and dances with the daffodils.
[From 'I Wandered Lonely As a Cloud' by William Wordsworth]
